This document provides you with key investor information about this Fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this Fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

Montag & Caldwell US Equity Large Cap Growth Fund (the "Fund") - Class GR (Unhedged) (ISIN: IE00BFG1W940)

The Fund is a sub-fund of Montag & Caldwell Funds plc (the "Company")

Objectives and Investment Policy

Investment Objective: The Fund aims to achieve growth on your investment by outperforming U.S. companies that are largely capitalised. The Fund's performance is measured against the Russell 1000 Growth Index (the "Index"). The Index measures the performance of largely capitalised U.S. companies.

Investment Policy: The focus of the Fund's investment is in shares of U.S. companies that are largely capitalised. The Fund invests at least 67% of its assets in shares of largely capitalised companies that are quoted on the U.S. stock exchanges and are incorporated in the U.S. or undertake their economic activities in the U.S. The Fund may invest up to 33% of its assets in shares of non - U.S. companies that are quoted on the U.S. stock exchanges. The Fund may also invest in equity securities that are listed or traded on those stock exchanges/markets that are listed in Appendix 1 of the Prospectus.

You may buy and sell shares on a daily basis. An application to sell your shares must be submitted to the Fund's administrator by 5.00pm Irish time on the business day on which you want to sell.

The Fund will not distribute any dividends. Income and gains of the Fund will be rolled up into the value of your shares.

Risk and Reward Profile

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
lower potential risk/rewards					higher potential risk/rewards

The indicator above illustrates the position of this Fund on a standard risk/reward category scale.

This indicator is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund.

The risk and reward category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time.

The lowest category does not mean investment is "risk free".

This indicator is not a measure of the risk that you may lose the amount you have invested.

The Fund is in category 5 because it is a long-only U.S. equity fund and equity prices generally fluctuate considerably and more frequently compared to short and intermediate fixed income securities as well as money market securities.

Equity prices fluctuate based on many factors including: individual company fundamentals; macro economic conditions; and prevailing and anticipated interest rate levels.

Montag & Caldwell's process focuses on large-cap, high-quality stocks, which tend to be less volatile than smaller-cap and lower-quality stocks. Montag & Caldwell's investment process has proven less volatile than similar type products and has resulted in steady returns for investors.

The indicator opposite does not take account of the following risks of investing in the Fund:

- The value of the Shares may fall and you may not get back the amount you invested.
- The return on the Shares may be less than other securities.
- The value of the Shares will be affected by the deduction of fees and expenses.
- The Investment Manager, the Fund and the Company make no representations or warranty regarding the likely investment performance of the Fund to achieve its investment objective.
- The value of the Shares may move down in response to stock market conditions, changes in the economy or changes in a particular company's stock price. An individual stock may decline in value even when the value of stocks in general is rising.
- There may be higher than average level of transaction costs to the Fund due to frequent trading of the Fund's securities. This may negatively impact the Fund's performance.
- Changes in economic, tax or foreign investment policies, or other political, governmental or economic actions can adversely affect the value of securities in the Fund.
- The base currency of the Class GR (Unhedged) is GBP and the base currency of the Fund is USD. Shareholders will be subject to the risk that the value of their Shares will fluctuate against the base currency of the Fund.

For more information on risks, please see the section entitled 'Risk Factors' in the prospectus.

Charges

The charges you pay are used to pay the costs of running the Fund, including the costs of marketing and distributing it. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment.
